PIKE COUNTY, KENTUCKY, BIRTHS--1855

During the period 1852 to 1910, the Commonwealth of Kentucky made an effort to compile vital statistics for the inhabitants of its counties. These births in Pike County, for the year 1855, are among the birth, death, and marriage records for that period which are now located at the Kentucky Department of Libraries and Archives, Frankfort. Data in the original record was entered under columns headed: "Date of Birth/Name/Sex/Condition/Place of Birth/Name of Father or Owner of Child/Maiden Name of Mother." Pike County--the eastern-most and largest in area of Kentucky's counties--was formed in 1821 out of Floyd; the county seat of Pike is Pikeville.

KENTUCKY SUPREME COURT

MURRAY HEIRS

DEED BOOK B: PAGE 449

This indenture made this 21st day of March[,] Seventeen Hundred and Ninety-two. Between Henry Cassel of Baltimore County and State of Maryland of the one part and Rebecca Murray widow of John Murray deceased and Richard and John Murray sons of the said John Murray, dec., and Harriot, Elizabeth, and Rachel Murray, Daughters of the said Deceased John Murray of the other part all and each of them in Baltimore County in the state of Maryland. [For consideration of Forty-five pounds current and lawful money of Maryland, Cassel conveyed to the Murray family a plot of land in Jefferson County, District of Kentucky, on Bottinger's Creek, a branch of the Rolling Fork, adjoining Bottinger's Preemption on the upper side and William Chinoweth's on the South side. All boundaries are noted and the parcel contained six hundred acres of land, more or less.]...Agreeable to the will and testament of the said John Murray, decd. Said Will is dated the tenth day of August, 1785, and Recorded amongst the Records in the Register's Office of Baltimore County to them their or either of their heirs and assigns forever...In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and fixed my seal this day and year first above written. Henry Cassell (ss). Jacob Swope, Attorney.

ACKNOWLEDGED BY SUPREME COURT OF THE DISTRICT OF KENTUCKY, MARCH 1, 1792, CHRIST. GREENUP, C.S.C.

1. The first part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the general principles of the theory of the structure of the atom. It is shown that the structure of the atom is determined by the laws of quantum mechanics, and that the laws of quantum mechanics are based on the principle of the conservation of energy.

2. In the second part of the paper, the author discusses the structure of the atom in more detail. He shows that the structure of the atom is determined by the laws of quantum mechanics, and that the laws of quantum mechanics are based on the principle of the conservation of energy.

3. The third part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the structure of the atom in more detail. It is shown that the structure of the atom is determined by the laws of quantum mechanics, and that the laws of quantum mechanics are based on the principle of the conservation of energy.

4. In the fourth part of the paper, the author discusses the structure of the atom in more detail. He shows that the structure of the atom is determined by the laws of quantum mechanics, and that the laws of quantum mechanics are based on the principle of the conservation of energy.

5. The fifth part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the structure of the atom in more detail. It is shown that the structure of the atom is determined by the laws of quantum mechanics, and that the laws of quantum mechanics are based on the principle of the conservation of energy.

6. In the sixth part of the paper, the author discusses the structure of the atom in more detail. He shows that the structure of the atom is determined by the laws of quantum mechanics, and that the laws of quantum mechanics are based on the principle of the conservation of energy.

7. The seventh part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the structure of the atom in more detail. It is shown that the structure of the atom is determined by the laws of quantum mechanics, and that the laws of quantum mechanics are based on the principle of the conservation of energy.

8. In the eighth part of the paper, the author discusses the structure of the atom in more detail. He shows that the structure of the atom is determined by the laws of quantum mechanics, and that the laws of quantum mechanics are based on the principle of the conservation of energy.

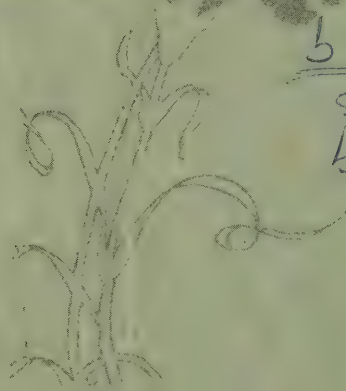

9. The ninth part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the structure of the atom in more detail. It is shown that the structure of the atom is determined by the laws of quantum mechanics, and that the laws of quantum mechanics are based on the principle of the conservation of energy.

10. In the tenth part of the paper, the author discusses the structure of the atom in more detail. He shows that the structure of the atom is determined by the laws of quantum mechanics, and that the laws of quantum mechanics are based on the principle of the conservation of energy.

Wolf Creek

The map located below shows an area of southern Martin County near the Pike County border including the headwaters of the Pigeon Roost Fork of Wolf Creek. As the map shows, some of these tributaries are located just south of an area known as Laura. These small streams were named for families who settled in Southern Martin County including the Davis, Jude & Maynard families from which I descend.

This list contains the names of Pike County voters in the 1868 Presidential election, between Democrat Horatio Seymour and Republican Ulysses S. Grant. The letter "d" after a name indicates a voter for the Democrat ticket, and an "r" indicates a Republican voter. Secret ballots were not in use at the time. In the last column, the letter "u" indicates a Union army veteran who voted Republican, and the letter "h" indicates a Republican voter who had a Union veteran residing in his household.

These records were transcribed from old Pike County records by Dewey R. Honaker, Pikeville, Kentucky, and furnished by George Thornbury, Pikeville, Kentucky. Special thanks is due these men for their efforts in preserving the history of this region.

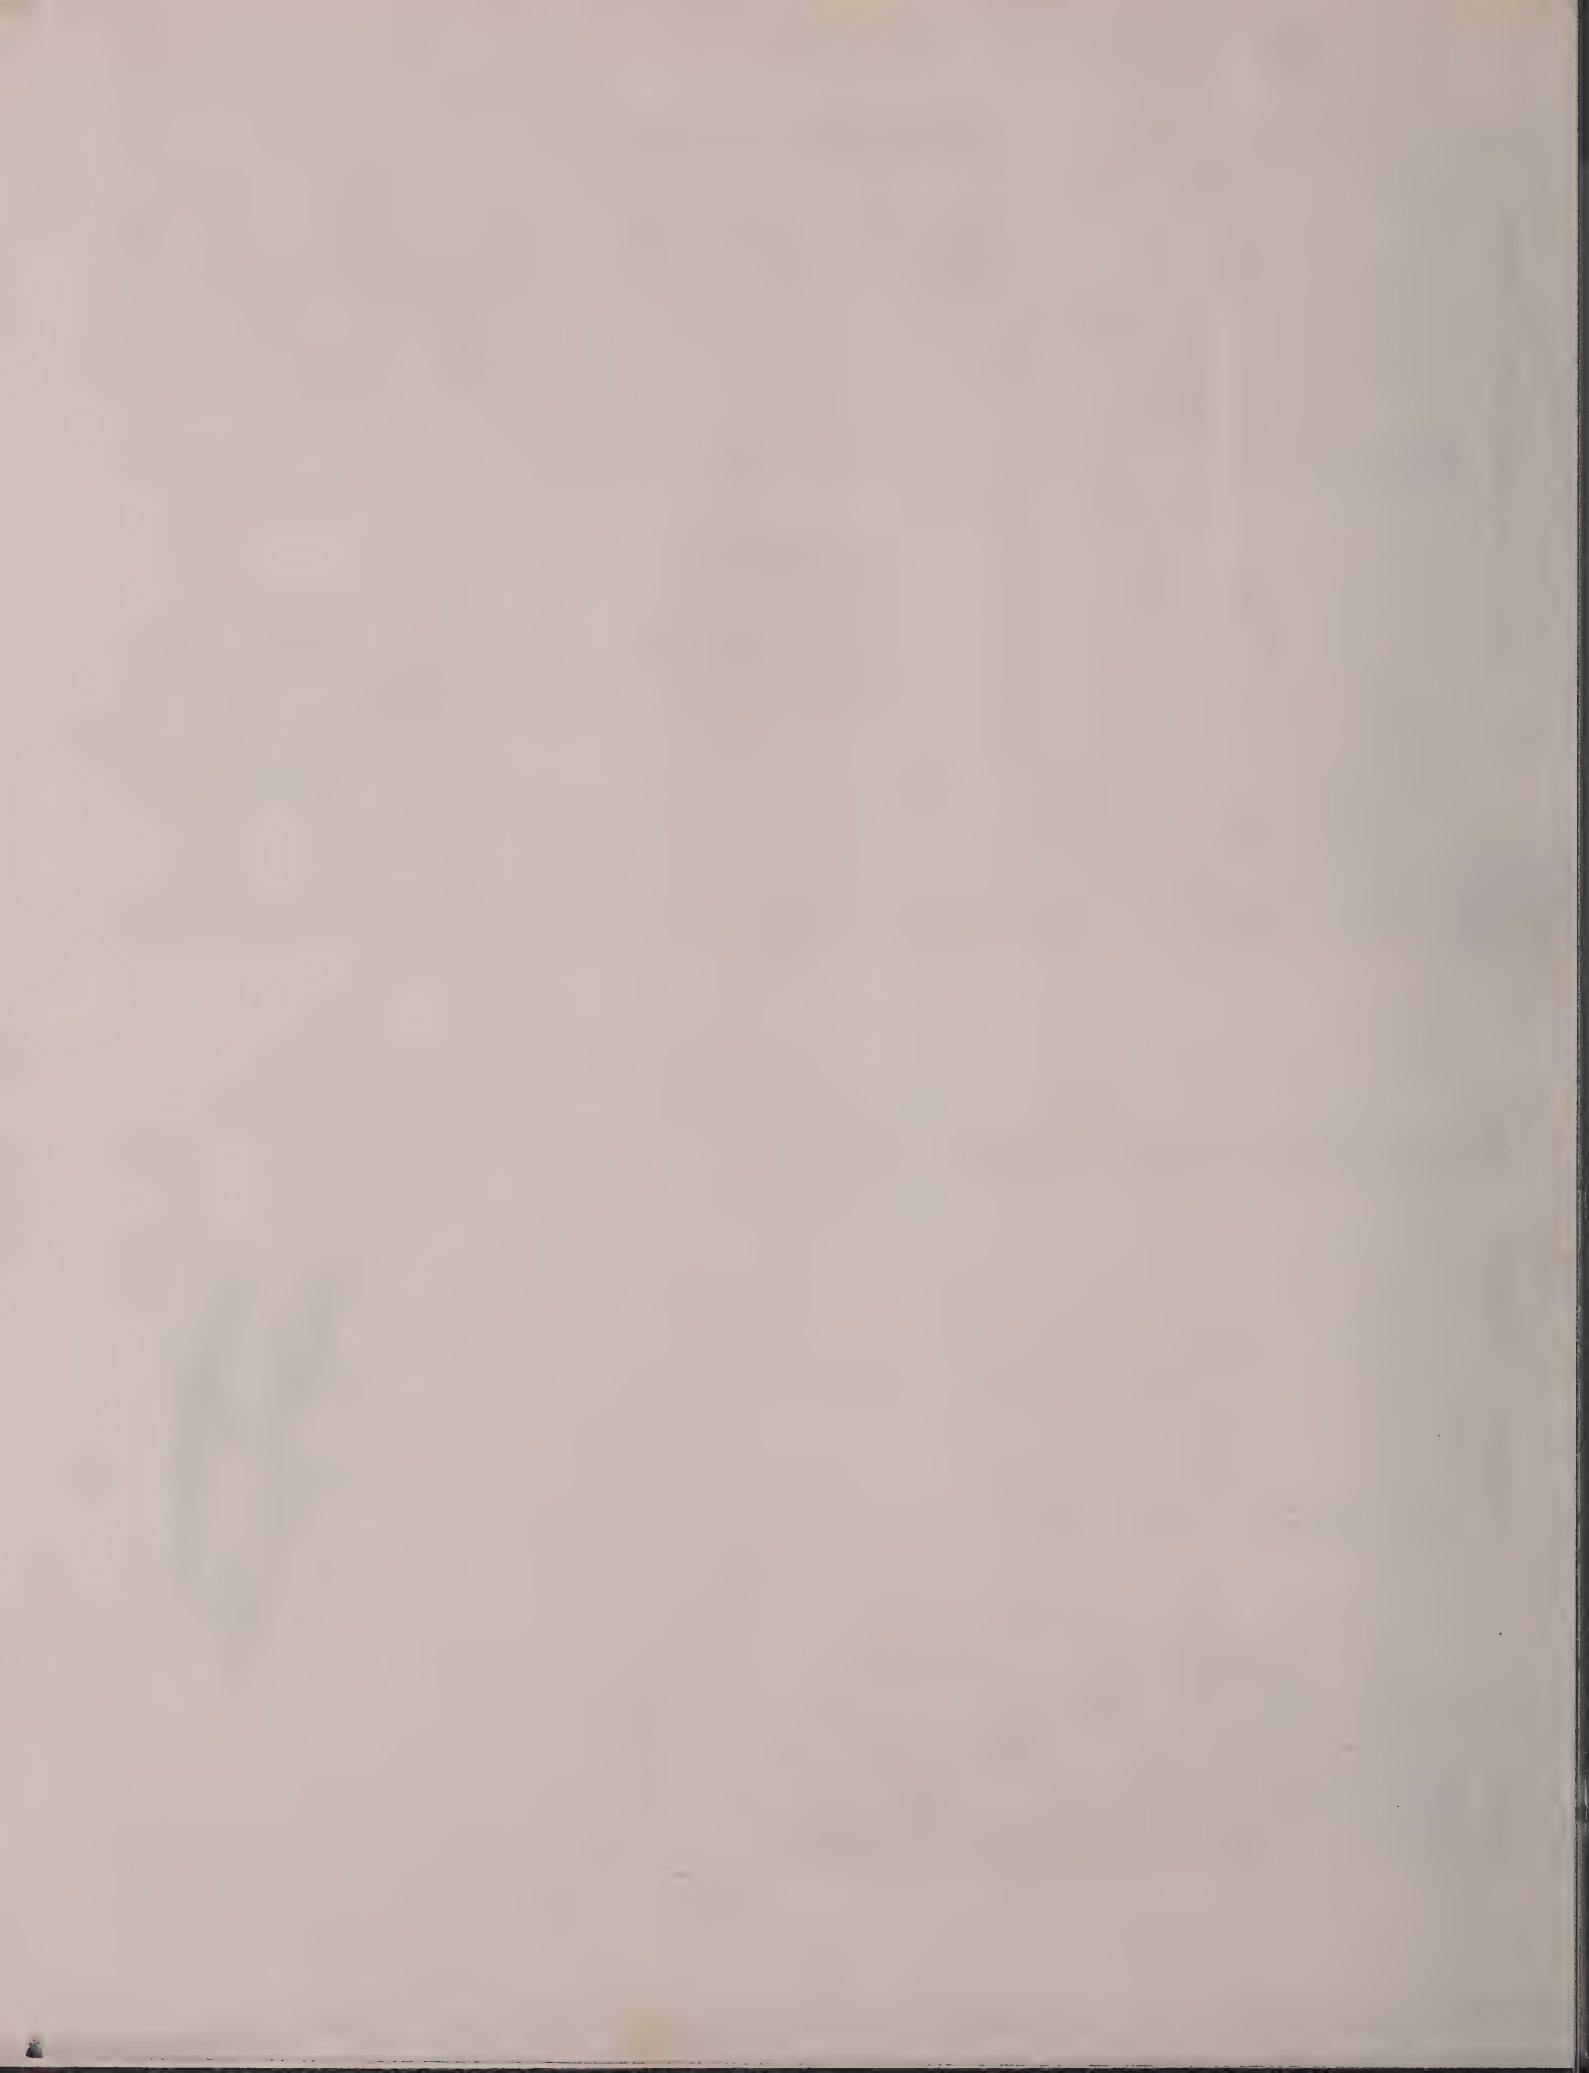

The vote totals by district are as follows:

PENSION RECORDS

The government of the Commonwealth of Kentucky awarded pension benefits to Civil War veterans who fought for the Confederacy. The pensions have been indexed in two separate publications, Kentucky Confederate Veterans and Widows Pension Index (Owensboro, Kentucky: Cook and McDowell Publications, 1979) and Index of Confederate Pension Applications (Frankfort: Kentucky Archives Branch, 1978).

The pension applications have been microfilmed, but are only available at the Kentucky Historical Society.

PEE WEE VALLEY CONFEDERATE HOME RECORDS

The records of the Pee Wee Valley confederate Home include letters from inmates, clothing issues, grocery bills and other miscellaneous documents. The records are not indexed, but are available for research at the Kentucky Historical Society.

1. The first part of the paper discusses the general situation of the East Asian library at the University of Chicago. It includes a brief history of the library and its collections, and a description of the current state of the library and its collections.

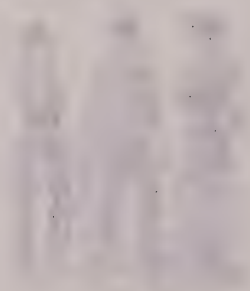

2. The second part of the paper discusses the specific collections of the East Asian library, including the Chinese, Japanese, and Korean collections. It includes a description of the collections and a discussion of the current state of the collections.

3. The third part of the paper discusses the future of the East Asian library at the University of Chicago. It includes a discussion of the current state of the library and its collections, and a discussion of the future of the library and its collections.

INFORMATION ON THE 8TH VIRGINIA CAVALRY

The following information appeared in the Out of the Past column authored by Byron T. Morris, a columnist for the "Wayne County News", the newspaper of Wayne County, West Virginia. The information below was in Mr. Morris' column of December 18, 1980

By Bryon T. Morris

As far as I know, there has been no complete list of Confederate soldiers from Wayne County(West Virginia), although we have carried in the past, the rosters of several Confederate companies. In listing the men from Wayne County that served the southern cause in the Civil War, there may be some duplication due to transfer of men from one unit to another.

The 8th Va. Cavalry in the early stages of the war, played an important role along the northern border of the south. In this regiment were two companies that were almost totally Wayne Countians with a sprinkling of Cabell County men.

Company K, sometimes known as the Big Sandy Rangers, had many well known Wayne County men in it.

The commissioned officers in Co. K in the early part of the war were Joseph M. Ferguson, Capt.; Samuel S. Vinson, first Lieutenant; Samuel J. Ferguson, second Lieutenant; and William E. Wilkinson, third Lieutenant. Col. J.M. Corns was the regimental commander at the time.

A part of Co.K of the 8th Regiment were Noah Adkins, Winchester Adkins, Harmon Artrip, Noah Artrip, John L. Billups, F.M. Bing, David Bates, Charles Booth, Burwell Booth, F.M. Booth, David Bowen, J.L. Bowen, Carr (Kiah?) Burch, D.C. Canady, Fred Canady, J.M. Corns, J.M. Corns Jr., William Dyer, Harvey Ferguson, H.E. The first part of the paper discusses the importance of the study of the history of the United States. It is argued that a knowledge of the past is essential for a full understanding of the present. The author then proceeds to discuss the various factors that have shaped the development of the United States, including the role of the government, the economy, and the culture.

In the second part of the paper, the author examines the role of the government in the development of the United States. It is argued that the government has played a crucial role in shaping the country's history, from the founding of the nation to the present day.

The third part of the paper discusses the role of the economy in the development of the United States. It is argued that the economy has been a major factor in the country's growth and development, and that the government has played a key role in regulating the economy.

The fourth part of the paper examines the role of the culture in the development of the United States. It is argued that the culture has been a major factor in the country's identity and development, and that the government has played a key role in promoting the culture.

The fifth part of the paper discusses the role of the people in the development of the United States. It is argued that the people have been a major factor in the country's history, and that the government has played a key role in representing the people.

The sixth part of the paper examines the role of the future in the development of the United States. It is argued that the future is a major factor in the country's development, and that the government has played a key role in planning for the future.

The seventh part of the paper discusses the role of the world in the development of the United States. It is argued that the world has been a major factor in the country's history, and that the government has played a key role in representing the world.

INFORMATION ON THE 16TH VIRGINIA CAVALRY

The following information appeared in the Out of the Past column authored by Byron T. Morris, a columnist for the "Wayne News", the newspaper of Wayne County, West Virginia. The information below was in Mr. Morris' column of October 2, 1980

By Bryon T. Morris

A native of Wayne County who now lives in Alexandria, Va., is Karl F. Hoback. He is much interested in Wayne County history as it pertains to the Civil War.

I don't think Karl will mind if I partially quote a recent letter to me because it contains some interesting information.

"I was finally able to complete going through the records for the 16th Virginia Cavalry and its predecessor Ferguson's Battalion for the roster of the two Wayne County companies which I told you about in my previous letter.

"I've enclosed copies of the roster of Spurlock's Company of Ferguson's Battalion (later Co. E., 16th Reg.) and Ferguson's Co., Ferguson's Battalion (also later Co. H., 16th Reg.) and some additional information that was included with this material. As you can see, Ferguson's Battalion was not in existence too long until it was reorganized into the 16th Reg. With the formation of this Regiment a lot of men of Ferguson's old company transferred to a new company, Co. G, the 16th with Robert H. Parkes as Captain. Parkes was a member of the Ferguson's Co., and I guess he must have been from Wayne County (yes, he was from Big Hurricane, b.t.m.) I see in the 1850 census there were a couple of Parks families but don't see a Robert listed. Also, at this time some of the men of Ferguson's Bn., were transferred to a newly formed Co., D (2nd) in the 8th Reg.

"The locations given for various muster rolls of the 16th Reg. are of interest since it appears they were over in the eastern part of Virginia for a good period of time. I know that the 16th Regiment was part of Jenkins Brigade at Gettysburg (July, 1863), while the 8th Reg. was apparently left back in

"I would imagine that there might be a lot of interest in the original muster rolls for Spurlock and Ferguson Companies, as the men's ages are given and I think about all of them must have been from Wayne County. The more I get into this, the more it looks like Wayne was really Confederate County. If you have any idea of any other units that might have been raised in Wayne County, let me know and I'll look into it.

"I'm related to all the rest of the Hoback's in Wayne County. My father was raised on Whites Creek area and then moved to Huntington. His mother was a Pyles and the two Pyles in Spurlock's Company were her uncles.

" I agree with you that Wayne County history has been neglected for a long time, if I come across any more intersting material I will send it along."

The 16th Regiment of the Virginia Cavalry was formed Jan. 15, 1863, by the consolidation of five companies of Ferguson's (Guyandotte) Battalion and four companies of Caldwell's Battalion.

In the Regiment, Milton J. Ferguson was Colonel, William L. Greene, Lt. Col., and James H. Nouunan was major. Spurlock's Company of Ferguson's Battalion became Co. E, in the 16th Reg., and Ferguson's Company became Co. H.

Both Ferguson's and Spurlock's were mustered into service on Spet. 15, 1862, at Wayne Court House, Va. the muster rolls of these companies are, apparently, based on the original rolls.

With regard to the muster rolls for Co. E., there are these entries:

- 1) Dated Oct., 1863-March, 1864, location near Jefferston, Va.
- 2) Dated Oct., 1864, location New Ford, Page County, Va.
- 3) Dated Dec., 1864, location near Standardsville, Greene County, Va.

Muster rolls for Co. H were:

- 1) Oct., 1863-March, 1864, location not given.
- 2) Oct., 1864, location Milford, Page County, Va.
- 3) Dated Dec., 1864, location Standardsville, Greene County, Va.

Number 4

First Tax List of Lawrence County, 1822

By an act of Kentucky's General Assembly, approved December 14, 1821, the County of Lawrence was formed "out of parts of the Counties of Greenup and Floyd." Established as the seat of Lawrence County (named in honor of War of 1812 naval hero Captain James ["Don't give up the ship!"] Lawrence) was the town of Louisa, where the Tug and Levisa Forks of the Big Sandy River separate. Parts of the original area of Lawrence were pared away when the counties of Carter (1838), Elliott (1869), Johnson (1843), and Martin (1870) were formed.

ANGELINE OF MY DREAMS

*I know this ancient place,
 Its mossy mound,
 Crumbling stone and lonely ground.
 This place knows me.*

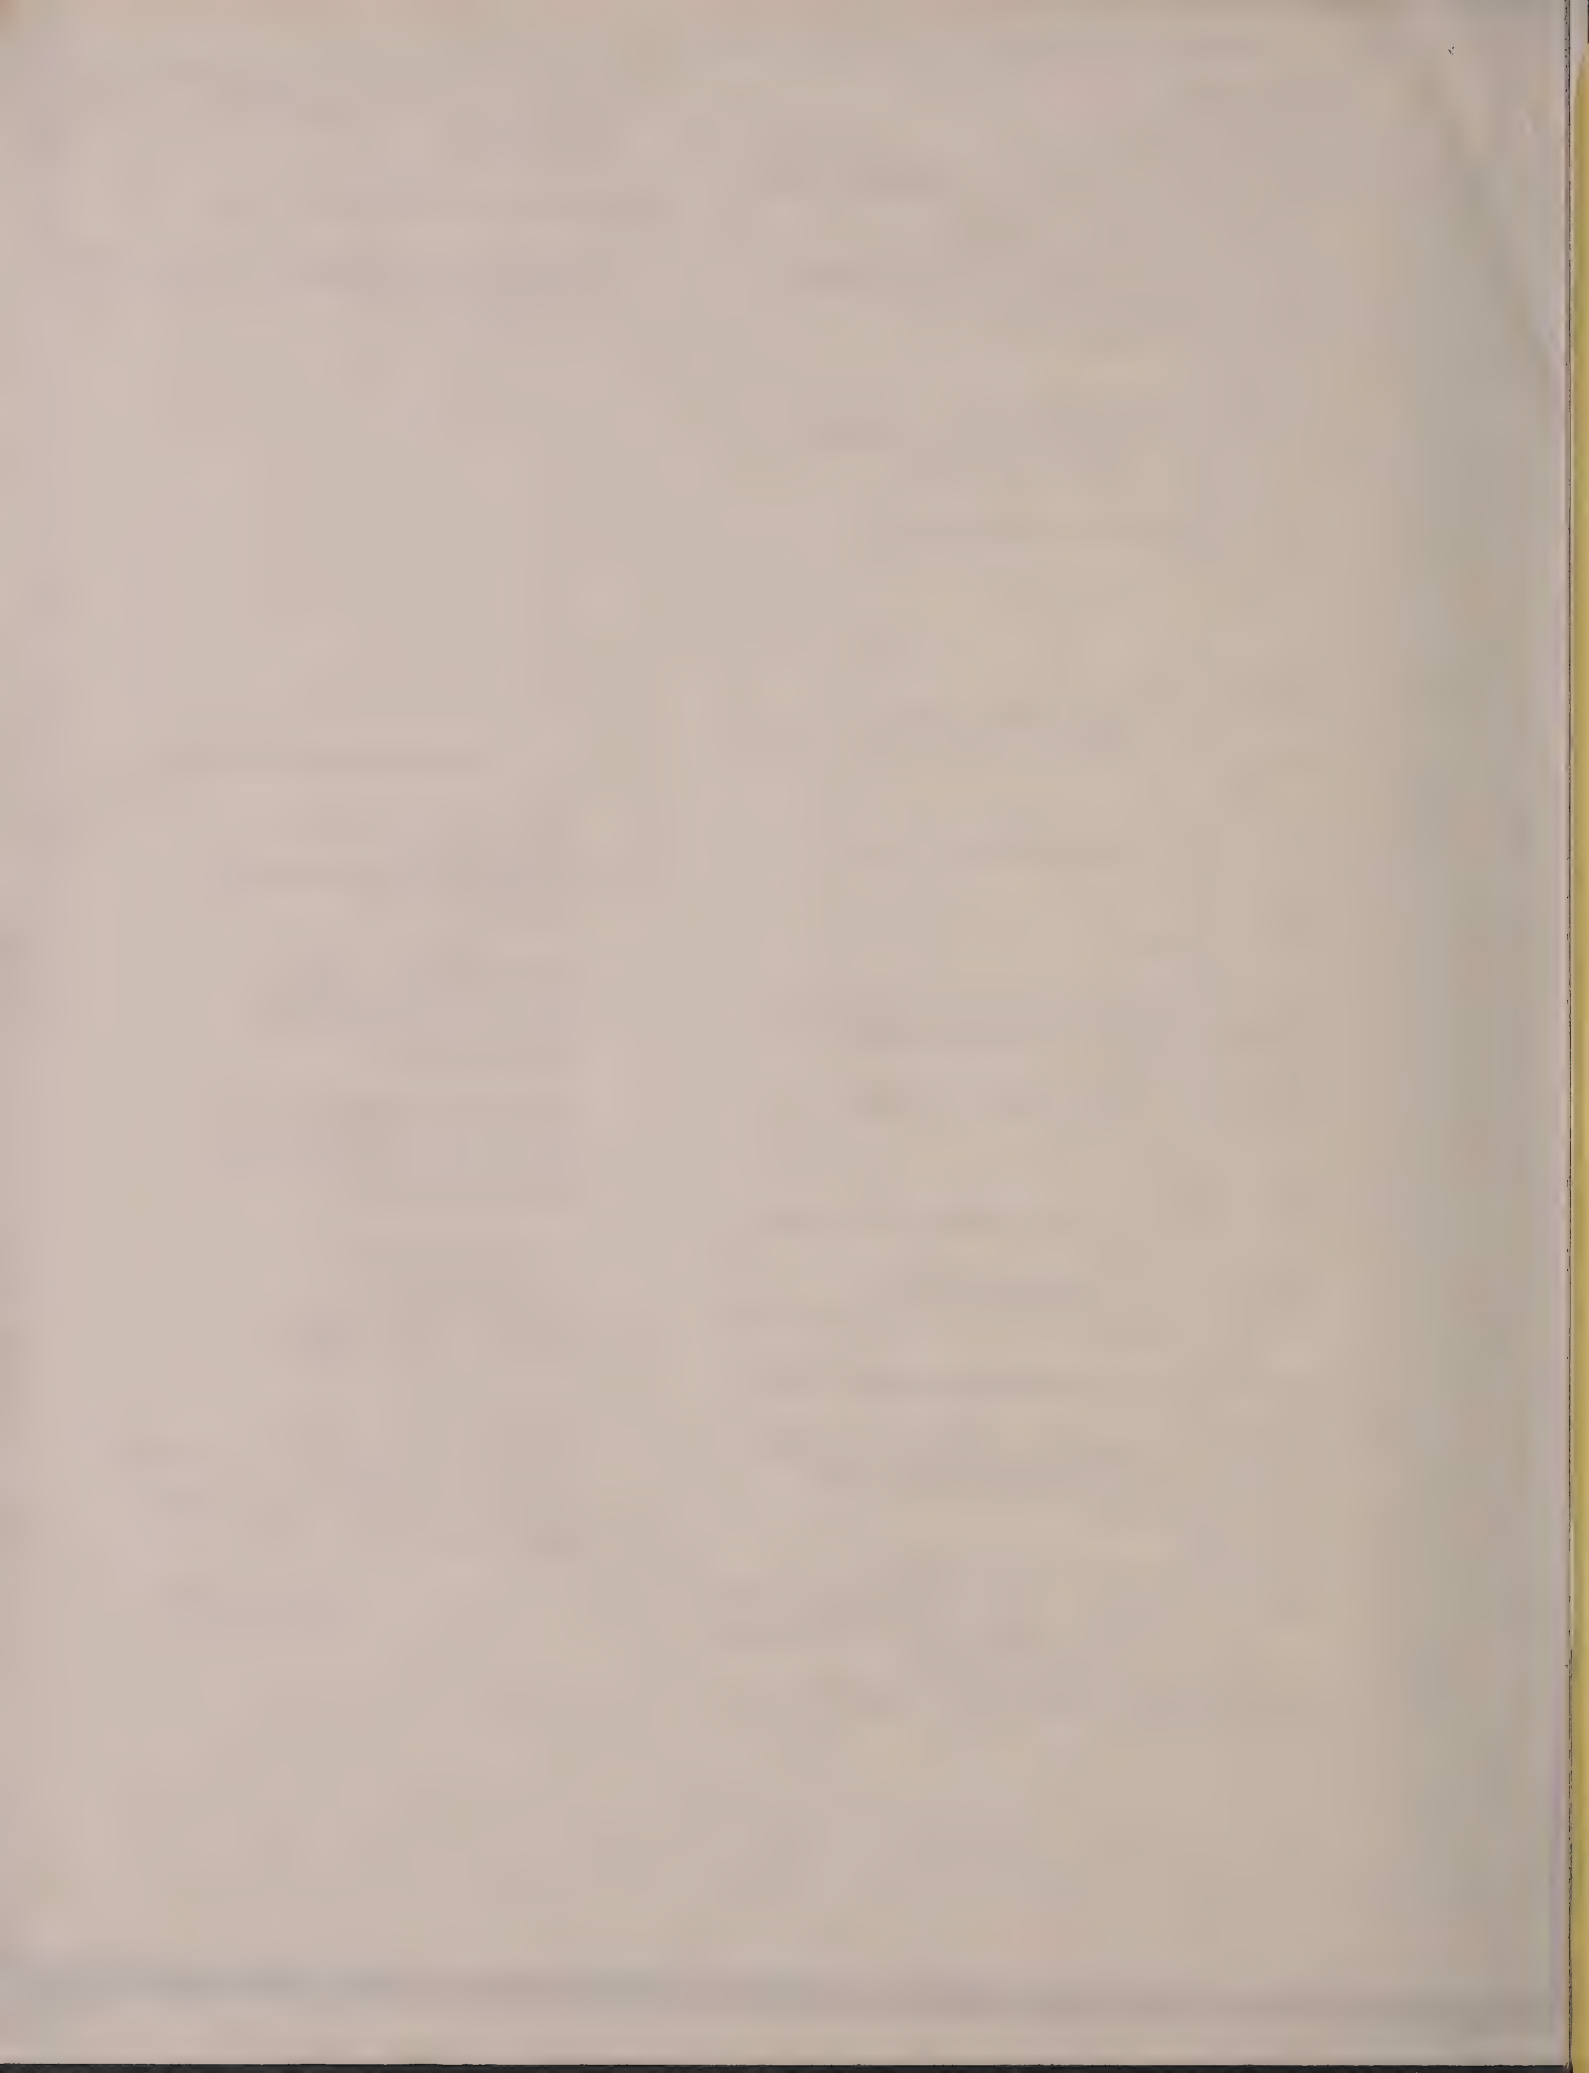

*We mourned you, Angeline.
 Your bruised babe and you,
 On a rainy day, in another time,
 In this same space.*

*Beneath the glistening shroud
 Of black umbrella and emerald pine,
 We trailed your creaking carriage
 To this muddy grave.*

*"From dust thou art,
 And to such return,"
 Bewailed the woeful eulogist.
 "Even as a vapor that was,
 This woman is no more."*

*Thus swallowed by the clay,
 You were not, and I was not . . . that day,
 Yet you are, because I am,
 For somewhere in your grieving children
 Was I found.*
